

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1897.

ONE CENT.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. B. F. Cliff has returned from Washington City.

Mr. George Bent of Maysville was in this city yesterday.

Mr. W. D. Galbreath of Maysville was in the city yesterday.

Colonel Sam W. Stairs of The Dover News was a pleasant caller on The LEDGER yesterday.

Hon. A. M. J. Cochran and son Roy have returned from the inauguration of President McKinley.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

Mails served at all hours at Roper's New Era.

The Indiana Legislature has passed the Computer Education Bill.

Joseph Hartman, a well known citizen, died at Aberdeen Friday night.

The Street Railway Company is making some much needed repairs to its track.

Don't fail to place your "ad" in The LEDGER if you want the most for your money.

His many friends will regret to know that Mr. J. M. C. Ballenger continues quite ill.

The damage by the floods in Indiana and Ohio during the past week will amount to millions of dollars.

Mr. Ora A. Kennedy, aged 26, and Miss Queenie Kabler, aged 16, married at Germantown today.

William M. Meredith of Indiana wants his old place as Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Major W. H. Bishop of Middletown wants to be appointed Fourth Assistant Postmaster General.

Mr. J. Thomas, formerly of this county, is owner of the Willow Springs Mills at Willow Springs, Mo.

Born to the wife of County Clerk W. D. Cochran, a fine daughter, Mrs. Cochran is with her parents at Danville.

The debts of Mr. W. H. Osborne having been settled in full, his assignment is raised and the Assignees discharged.

Yesterday was all that bustle, good humor and sunshine could accomplish. Today is all that rain, mud and gloom can make it.

Mr. Garrett Thompson, a student at the Bible College, Lexington, is ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Thompson.

The crowds on the streets and in the stores yesterday gave evidence that times are getting better. All merchants report good trade.

John Shawell was yesterday held in $300 bond to answer before the June Grand Jury for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Hon. C. B. Payne has been appointed member of the Democratic Executive Committee from Precinct 3, to succeed T. M. Pearce, deceased.

Special Cash Sales this week only on stamped work. Come early before the rush at our new store, 41 West Second street, opposite State National Bank.

McCLANAHAN & SHEA.

It has been entered of record in the County Court that Mr. C. Burgess Taylor is "a gentleman of honesty, probity and good demeanor," the initial step toward admission to the Bar.

Attorney General Taylor is preparing to go after the Cincinnati Baseball Club, which is incorporated in this state, its articles being on file in the office of the County Clerk of Kenton county. It hasn't made its reports as required by the Franchise Law.

Colonel Thomas Y. Nasbitt is among the latest Pilgrims to return from the inauguration. Our friends in Washington say he was THE LEDGER's most prominent Representative, as indeed he was its most capable one. What he didn't see and hear could be compassed in a very small volume. His Newspaper Badge secured prompt recognition in places where Angels had their pet corn tramped on.

The top of the kitchen chimney at the residence occupied by Mr. Henry P. Chenoweth fell onto the roof this morning, crushing it in, and several brick tumbled off into the alleyway between Mr. Joseph Wallingford's residence and Mr. Chenoweth's. Hon. Jack Crouch's head narrowly escaping one of the falling missiles. The damage is slight.

PROBLEM.
If A is good-looking and 20;
If B is twice as good and 18;
If C is twice as good and 30, what is the value of D, if D is twice as good?
Can you show by what use of quadratics
the squaring of C may be done?
And when by applied mathematics
will 18 and 30 be 17?

died the other day in Washington, had been for twenty-five years Professor of Science in the Ohio Wesleyan University, and was ranked as one of the most distinguished educators of Ohio.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

One To Be Held on Saturday, May 8th—
All Democrats to Vote.

Another Cincinnati Building Association has gone to pot. What a rotten lot they are.

Evangelist Moody and his party, who have been meeting with great success in Cincinnati during the past week, have decided to remain there another week.

Are you reading Table, Dessert or Tea

the jeweler, is showing an elegant line of
"P. J. Murphy's Silver, Silver-Steel" and Boys & Bros.'s "100% goods."

We have low prices if you need the goods.

Colonel Sam Stairs of The Dover News
has been inducted into the Indiana
Indiana Editorial Association at Paoli in May next. The Colonel is himself an ex-Indiana Editor, and has many friends among the "guild" of the Hoosier State.

Governor Bradish has given his ultimatum that he will take no further action in the Jackson-Walling business unless there should be some tangible information
as to what was done with Pearl Bryan's head. He is anxious that it be restored if possible, and be buried with the body. Not only this, but the Governor wants such information to reach him
before it does the public.

Washington friends of Charles W. Erdman of Louisville, ex-United States Consul to Breslau, Germany, say he is slated for his old position. It is not positively known that Mr. Erdman is a candidate, but nevertheless he will be pressed for an appointment in the foreign service. His record
as a Wisconsin State Senator and Bradish class and will count much in his favor should he apply for his old place. Charlie is a G. A. R. man, with many friends in Maysville who will be glad to hear of his appointment.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Henry M. Stanley passed last night
for Pomeroy.

The Bonanza will pass to Cincinnati
tonight from Pomeroy.

Yesterday the Courier resumed her trip in the Maysville-Cincinnati trade
after a long tussle.

The Sherley passed down from Pomeroy
last night with a big trip. She returns for that point tonight.

The Virginia with a magnificent trip of freight passed to Cincinnati last night at 10 o'clock. She discharged a large quantity of indigo shams at the destruction of its resources and the degradation of its dignity and honor; a period that has no parallel
except in the time of Walpole, described
by Macaulay as "the era of dwarfish
talents and gigantic vices: the paradise
of cold hearts and narrow minds, the
golden age of the coward, the bigot
and the slave."

He bequeaths to his successor failing
resources, disordered natures, social
discontent, which has already obliterated
political frontiers and will compel the
redistribution of parties to meet the conditions of the revolution upon which we
have entered.

The river is on another swell. The heavy rains of the past few days have started the stream up the bank again, and another flood may be looked for in the Ohio Valley. With the Mississippi boomer-ing out at end to end, the Missouri pouring out at a terrible rate, helping the Ohio to back up; with the tributaries
above rising fast, and with fourteen hours incessant rain, it seems that the only thing left is to advise those who have moved back into their homes after the flood of two weeks ago to move out again and wait for the coming of the angry torrent from above. At this point the gauge shows 39 3/8, a rise of four feet
since yesterday morning, and coming up at the rate of two inches per hour, and there is no encouraging news from above,
all points reporting a rise with heavy rains.

The river freight traffic, says The Times-Standard notwithstanding the assertions to the contrary, is larger now than when the Ohio was at its height. The water is higher, the boats are larger, and the freight is heavier.

WHAT A ROAST

Mister Cleveland Done to a Nice, Rich Brown.

EX-SENATOR INGALLS, CHEF.

Review of the Humiliating Administration of the Un-American.

AND EVERY WORD IS TRUE

New York Journal, March 10th.

The last day of Grover Cleveland
had the American people no other cause
for universal joy, this alone would suffice.
He went into power with much opposition. He gone out with none.
The Nation shared the relief with which professes to anticipate liberations from the cares and burdens of state. If he has been spared, he is not yet safe.

Meanwhile, with the warehouses rapidly filling with the importations of all commodities whose price would be increased by the new bill, the prospect of increased revenues from customs duties is not very encouraging. It is perhaps too much to expect that the President will abandon the system with which his name and fame are so indissolubly associated, and to the promotions of which he stands pledged; but to the disinterested observer it looks as though an additional tax on beer, whisky,
tobacco and some of the other necessities
of life would be the safest and easiest expedient for meeting the emergency.

Incidentally the attitude of the Senate emphasizes the demand that the Constitution should be so amended as to provide for the election of Senators by the vote of the people. The fathers of the Republic distrusted the capacity of the people for self-government.

They endeavored to deprive them of direct power in the selection of the President and Senate. But the great scandals and reproaches of our political history have not come from the immediate frustration of constitutions, but rather from the culpable intrigues of unscrupulous leaders and the venality of corrupt legislators.

Experience proves that the wildest excesses of popular liberty are preferable to the dangers of its denial, however placid and splendid and gilded the subtlety may be.

JOHN J. INGALLS.

The Hawaiian episode would be incredible
in the prospectus of a comic opera.
There has been no day in the past four years that has not witnessed some new triumph in Cleveland—some bank closed;
some railroad in the hands of a receiver;
some merchant broken; some furnace extinguished; some malimed and disabled veterans stigmatized and branded with dishonor, driven to the asylum or the grave. Boasting of his robust and incorruptible integrity, he retires with a vast fortune accumulated during the most disastrous period of his country's history, in which millions have been reduced from affluence to want, and from pomp to beggary.

History will record its incredulity that such an impostor could so long escape detection.
He is the central figure of one epoch to which no lover of his country will ever return without the blush of indignant shame at the destruction of its
dignity and honor; a period that has no parallel
except in the time of Walpole, described
by Macaulay as "the era of dwarfish
talents and gigantic vices: the paradise
of cold hearts and narrow minds, the
golden age of the coward, the bigot
and the slave."

He bequeaths to his successor failing
resources, disordered natures, social
discontent, which has already obliterated
political frontiers and will compel the
redistribution of parties to meet the conditions of the revolution upon which we
have entered.

With a belligerent and mutinous Senate, becoming constantly more jealous of its privileges, the new Chief Magistrate will be compelled to tread the paths of his feet with circumspection. He must take heed how he stands lest he fall. The people are fatigued with adversity. They are tired of hard times. They anticipate some miraculous and supernatural return of prosperity. Popular fancy depicts Mc-Kinley standing like Moses at Horob, to which Hamilton was likened by Webster
in his magnificent oration: "He smote
the rock of the National resources and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth; he plucked the corals of the public credit and it sprung upon its feet."

But the menacing manifesto of the Silver

More Talk

About Time.

Some people are peculiar in the matter of buying a Watch. A silver Watch is good enough for one man so long as it keeps good time. Another one wants something a little more showy—a gold one,—but it, too, must keep good time. Some want a high-priced Watch, others a cheaper one, but after all everybody wants a correct timepiece. We selected our stock with time in view, and can sell you a high, low or medium-priced Watch and any of them will keep time—the essential point.

We repair Watches so that we can guarantee them to keep time. Charges low.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA & AMERICANS!

WHERE DOES IT GET THE FIGURES?

The Courier-Journal's Insistence That the McKinley Bill Reduced the Revenues, While the Wilson Bill Increases Them.

MIRACULOUS.—When the McKinley Tariff was constructed there was a surplus in the Treasury receipts, and the McKinley Tariff was constructed for the express purpose of reducing the revenues.

At present there is a deficiency in the Treasury receipts, and the new Republican Tariff is being constructed for the express purpose of increasing the revenues.

And yet the rates of the McKinley Tariff are being largely restored in the new Tariff.

How is a Tariff which in 1890 was intended to reduce the revenues, and did actually reduce the revenues—how is such a Tariff to increase the revenues in 1897?

Our Republican friends have ever seemed to credit the Tariff with the power to work miracles. They have told us that a Tariff raises prices, and they have told us that the same Tariff lowers prices. And now they are telling us that a Tariff decreases the revenues and that the same Tariff increases the revenues.

Is it not time for the Protectionists to get together on some sort of a consistent ground on the Tariff question?—Courier-Journal.

The most conclusive answer that can be made to the Courier-Journal's groundless assertions is to be found in a comparison of the official figures, showing the total Treasury receipts for the first 29 months of the McKinley Law, which was a Protective Tariff, and for the first 29 months of the Wilson Law, which is a "Tariff for Revenue Only." They are as follows:

| Receipts—McKinley Law. | | Receipts—Wilson Law | |
|------------------------|---------------|---------------------|---------------|
| 1890—October. | $3,322,174 | 1894—October. | $22,621,328 |
| November. | 28,678,674 | October. | 19,189,240 |
| December. | 27,646,515 | November. | 19,411,403 |
| 1891. | 332,492,965 | December. | 21,866,137 |
| 1892. | 369,763,688 | 1895. | 317,047,683 |
| 1893—January. | 35,063,032 | 1896. | 314,585,069 |
| February. | 29,685,142 | 1897—January. | 34,316,904 |
| Total. | $882,505,340 | Total. | $739,087,754 |

Loss in 29 months under Democratic "Tariff for Revenue Only." $143,467,486.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY, like many other Kentuckians, is fond of backbone; indeed, he always keeps a supply hand.

BLACKBURN's friends say he will put up a hair-pulling fight before the extra session. Just so JOSEPH doesn't put up a hair-pulling fight it will be all right.

IT'S time and labor and space wasted to further notice one who is too ignorant to understand plain English, or, understanding it, deliberately distorts its meaning.

It is evident that GOVERNOR BRADLEY is not superstitious. His appointment of Senator WOOD was made on Friday, the call for the extra session of the Legislature was issued on Friday, and the Legislature is directed to meet on the 13th.

AUDITOR STONE's report shows that on March 1st the total deficit in the State's General Expenditure and School Funds was $320,563.53. And yet the lying Democratic Editors told the people that there was plenty of money in the Treasury, when there wasn't a single dollar and the state was more than a million in debt.

THE weekly statement of the New York banks shows an increase in loans of $4,452,100. That is good. It shows that money is being used—put in circulation—instead of lying idle in bank vaults. That's just what's the matter;—people who had money were afraid to let go of it; consequently, there were no new factories started; consequently, again, there was no work for workmen to do, no work gave them no pay, and no pay made them and their families want for food and clothing.

STRANGE things have happened, but it is hard to guess what the American can people can ever have for another Democratic Administration.

THE Washington hotel keepers say that the crowd at the Inauguration last week was the smallest Inauguration crowd since 1881. Maybe it's a case of sour grapes with the Washington hotel keepers. Many people have tired of their $4 and $5 a day exertions for the most ordinary accommodations, and when they visit the Capital they arrange for just as good treatment as the hotels afford at much less than half the rates. About everything else in this country has come down except hotel charges in the big towns.

PLACE HUNTING Is On in Real Earnest at the White House.

Many of the Ex-Members of Congress Are After Positions.

General Treaty of Arbitration Referred Back to the Committee on Foreign Relations by the Senate—McKinley May Recognize the Insurgents.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Place hunting began in real earnest at the white house Monday. In a few urgent cases only did the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, Senators of Vermont, Allison of Iowa, Wolcott of Colorado, Spooner of Wisconsin, Platt of Connecticut, Chandler of New Hampshire, Mason of Illinois, Calton of Alabama, and others, leave the white house, while from the ranks of the lower house came Messrs Cannon and Hitt of Illinois, Grosvenor of Ohio, Bromwich of Ohio, and Madison Hall of Iowa, Dallier of Iowa and Taylor of Ohio, the representative of Maj McKinley's district.

Ex-Congressmen, members of Wisconsin, and along line of other states, Mr. Gunther wants to be consul general to Mexico. C. H. Conger who was a member of congress from Iowa and later minister to Brazil, put in application for his former diplomatic post.

Gen. W. W. Thomas, of Portland, Me., was twice the diplomatic representative of the United States to Sweden, and is said to have been assured that he will be sent back to Sweden.

Col. John Hay was an early caller, but his president was engaged and the reputed ambassador to England concluded with wait.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Senate assembled at noon, and as soon as Friday's journal was read a message in from the president that the United States was presented by Mr. Pruden, one of his secretaries. The entire then proceeded to the consideration of executive business. At the same adjourned until Wednesday.

During the executive session of the senate several afternoons Senator Davis, who is one of the general committee of arbitration between the United States and Great Britain, which is now on the table, back to the committee on foreign relations, together with the permanent committee. The action was taken without discussion, although there was some immaterial discussion as to the method of getting the convention through.

Ex-Senator Connelie has made no definite plans for the future. He will remain in Washington for some time yet.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Every sign indicates that within 60 days Congress' Cuban policy will be completely reversed by McKinley. The Spanish minister here has already reported to his government that the General Assembly has voted to begin the Cuban independence, and that unless Cuba is to be lost forever, American citizens must be prepared at all hazards.

It is evident that Spanish emissaries have for months been favored to commit Maj McKinley to a policy of absolute nonintervention, and have failed completely.

Majority Sherman believes in recognizing Cubans as belligerents. President McKinley is naturally anxious to have congress get to work on the tariff bill, and he can best accomplish that by granting belligerent rights to the Cuban rebels.

A reliable authority, and one close to McKinley, said Monday morning: "President McKinley is better acquainted with the situation in the United States than almost anyone else in the nation, and he is determined to give Cuba belligerent rights within thirty days."

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Adm. John G. Walker, who will reach the retirement age on the 20th of March, is to be given the position of admiral secretary of the navy. M. A. M. M. in the meantime, has been requested to continue to act until his successor qualified, and he has consented to do so.

Anti-Trust Measure Passed.

Opposite, O. O. March 9.—The legislature Monday night passed a drastic anti-trust measure with heavy penalties: an educational qualification law and a law requiring the incoming republican government to remove democratic appointive officers unless by charges proved in court.

Blades of Armed Men in Sarcophagi.

Madison, March 9.—A band of armed men, who are believed to be Carlists, are threatening the members of the Guardia Civil, the officers of the various places through which they pass. A similar band is marching through the province of Valencia. Troops are in pursuit of both bands.

A Postmaster in Troubles.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—Martin Heuser, the postmaster at Limerick, Montgomery County, Pa., was resigning before United States Commissioner Bell bore Monday on the charge of converting money order funds to his own use. He was held in $1,500 bail for court.

Prince Bismarck Is Ill.

London, March 9.—Prince Bismarck, the popular old statesman at Limerick, Montgomery County, Pa., is ill. The German Ambassador, Dr. Bismarck, died in Limerick Saturday night, before the Prince. He had been ill for some time.

LEEDWOOD.

A Correspondent Who Has Discovered Some News in an Entirely New Field.

Mr. Sam Strode says he is also a candidate for Magistrate.

We had a little cyclone here last Friday, and the rain came down in torrents.

Tale is getting to be a great trading place, as there is a trade made almost every day.

Will your Shellrock correspondent please tell us where Shellrock is? and confer a great favor.

Why doesn't Mr. Stubblefield come out as a candidate for Sheriff? He could fill the office as well as any of them.

Your correspondent viewed a nice and well-handled crop of tobacco the other day. It was raised by Keuble Brothers near this place.

Mr. Lucien Guy says he has been a subscriber of your paper for fourteen or fifteen years and he would not do without THE LEDGER.

We have heard that the Editor of THE LEDGER is spoken of as Mayville's next Postmaster. Hurrah for the Hon. Thomas A. Davis! Long live him, and also great honor.

We noticed a card that was handed to us the other day that Mrs. Clara Allen was a candidate for Superintendent of Schools. Mrs. Allen is a clever, well-educated woman.

Mr. Guy of Lawrence Creek last week sold the McElroy farm near this place, and will move there the 10th of March. Mr. Guy is a good citizen and an old soldier, and we welcome him in our midst.

It is high time that something was done with the mud road that connects the Fleming and Hill City pikes. There ought to be a pipe made through, as there is a great deal of travel over and in the mud.

HAPPENED AT HELENA.

Choice Cuttings From the Garden of Information in That Beautiful Section.

Mrs. O. G. Callahan is some better. Mrs. James Layton is improving at this writing.

Mrs. Frankie Cooper is the welcome guest of Mrs. J. D. Roe.

Miss Brittingham of Ohio is the pleasant guest of Miss Linnia Bradford.

General T. A. Huguenin, a Confederate veteran, was buried with military honors at Charleston, S. C. In the cortege was the last Confederate flag which floated over Fort Sumter.

CAN THIS BE SO?

And, If So, Which "High Water Mark" Will Be Considered?

Papers along the Ohio river are publishing the statement in which it is claimed that the Attorney General of the United States has decided that the Government owns all the land along navigable rivers between low and high water marks.

This ownership holds in front of cities as well as elsewhere, and under the decision every boat will have free use of the river front.

It is illegal to collect wharfage, because the property used does not belong to the river front.

This may or it may not be so, but if true, it will be interesting to know just which "high water mark" is to be considered.

If the one recorded in 1888, Uncle Sam may lay claim to a good slice of what may now consider private property in this city.
